

Somerville Theatrical Arts Repertory, Inc.

2011

A 501(c)(3) Non-profit Organization

Under the organization and guidance of Shannon Elsea and Mary Harrell, STAR, Inc. (Somerville Theatrical Arts Repertory) was formed in 2010 as a non-profit organization to bring quality live theater performances to all of Fayette county and surrounding areas.

STAR, Inc, has committed to bringing several performances per year to the community. The troupe will also offer various educational workshops to give the local youth an opportunity to explore the world of theater and expand their horizons. STAR, Inc. strives to provide a quality theatrical education which also serves to build self-confidence and bring pride and respect to our community as it increases cultural awareness.

STAR, Inc.'s inaugural year's productions included:

- Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol", in early December, 2010;
- Joe diPietro's "All Shook Up" in March, 2011;
- David Bottrell & Jesse Jones' "Dearly Departed" in June, 2011; and
- E.B. White's "Charlotte's Web" in July, 2011.

Performances scheduled for our second season include "12 Angry Men", October 28-30, 2011, and "Annie, Get Your Gun" in March, 2012. The remaining performances for 2012 will be a comedy and a children's production during the summer, 2012.

STAR, Inc. welcomes contributions of time and talent. Can you sew? Consider offering to assist with costume design and construction. Are you handy with a drill and hammer? Our set building can use you! There are many ways that you can be a part of STAR, Inc.'s commitment to the community. See how much fun it can be!

For further information about STAR, Inc., or to join, please contact Mary Harrell at 901/466-1882.
